

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

In this case, the document is evidence of the existence of a lost Roll, rather than a Roll itself.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents, please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original document.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original document, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Text in green indicates letters missed out of the original text, usually in commonly found abbreviations.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

Roll

20 Oct 1387

N.B. This Roll is not extant, and what follows is a copy of an extract from the roll made for the copyholder concerned as his title deed.

The extract is Muniment 203 in Warner's Catalogue :

Ad Curiam tenta ibidem [i.e. apud Dilwys] xx^{mo} die Octobris Anno regni regis Ricardi Secundi undecimo venit Walterus Godman & petit admitti ad unum tenementum cum pertinenciis [&] & xij acris terre post decessu Walteri Mortelake filius Johannis Mortlake ut heres dicti Walteri Mortelake propinquus ut compertum est per totum homagium & ad missus est ad voluntatem domini -----
