

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

In this case, the document is evidence of the existence of a lost Roll, rather than a Roll itself.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents, please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original document.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original document, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

Roll

20 Oct 1387

N.B. This Roll is not extant, and what follows is a copy of an extract from the roll made for the copyholder concerned as his title deed.

The extract is Muniment 203 in Warner's Catalogue :

At the Court held there [i.e. at Dilwysh] on the 20th day of October in the eleventh regnal Year of king Richard the Second comes Walter Godman & seeks to be admitted to a tenement with appurtenances [&] 12 acres of land after the death of Walter Mortelake son of John Mortlake as nearest heir of the said Walter Mortelake as is apparent to the whole homage & he is admitted at the will of the lord -----
