

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

In this case, the document is evidence of the existence of a lost Roll, rather than a Roll itself.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents, please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original document.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original document, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Text in green indicates letters missed out of the original text, usually in commonly found abbreviations.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

Roll

21 May 1403

Barring any surprising discovery, this Roll is no longer extant, but must have existed to record the court session held on (Monday) 21st May 1403, as it is referred to by date (and not by reference to a Saint's Day) both in the opening lines of Roll B7 (back) and in B8, in relation to the various holdings that Sir Robert Denny acquired from Sir Robert Knolles.
