

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

In this case, the document is evidence of the existence of a lost Roll, rather than a Roll itself.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents, please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original document.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original document, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

Roll

11 Jul 1420

N.B. This Roll is not extant, and what follows is a copy of an extract from the roll made for the copyholder concerned as his title deed.

The extract is Muniment 204 in Warner's Catalogue :

At the Court with view of frankpledge, held at Dyllewyssh on Thursday next after the feast of the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr in the 8th regnal Year of king Henry, the fifth after the conquest of England, comes Thomas Dybbyll & makes fealty to the lord for one messuage & 11 acres of land, with its appurtenances, which were lately Sibylla Dybbyll's, the aforesaid Thomas' mother, whose heir he is, to have & to hold to himself ...
