

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

In this case, the document is evidence of the existence of a lost Roll, rather than a Roll itself.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents, please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original document.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original document, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Text in green indicates letters missed out of the original text, usually in commonly found abbreviations.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

Roll

28 Oct 1449

N.B. This Roll is not extant, and what follows is a copy of an extract from the roll made for the copyholder concerned as his title deed.

The extract is Muniment 255 in Warner's Catalogue :

Ad Curia cum Visum tenta ibidem die Martis in festum apostolorum Simonis & Jude Ann^o regni regis Henrici vj^{ti} xxvij venit Ricardi Wythyr & sursum reddidit in manus domini duas acras terre cum pertinenciis iacentes in Lytel croft abuttant super terre domini de Dulwiche versus orientali et parcellum Agnetis Dene ex parte boriali ad opus Johannis Brutone cui concessa est inde seisina per virgam in plena Curia Tenendum sibi & suis ad voluntatem domini secundum consuetudinem manerij per redditum & servicia inde [prius] debita & consueta Et dat de fine nomine relevium pro ingressu habendo viij d Et fecit domino fidelitatem & admissus est

[In 1449, the feast of Saints Simon & Jude (28 October) fell on a Tuesday. My original reading of the regnal year was 'xxvij', not 'xxviiij', but Warner dates this to 1449]
