

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

In this case, the document is evidence of the existence of a lost Roll, rather than a Roll itself.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents, please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original document.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original document, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

Roll

23 Nov 1458

N.B. This Roll is not extant, and what follows are copies of extracts from the roll made in each case for the copyholder concerned as his title deed.

The following extract is Muniment 285 in Warner's Catalogue :

Dillewyssh. To this Court with View of Frankpledge, held on the feast of Saint Clement, Pope, came William Spencer & his wife Agnes, examined on her own, came[sic] & surrendered into the lord's hands two acres & one half rood of land lying at Tweycroftes, which they hold at the will of the lord ... which were lately Thomas Gryme's, to the use of John Brutone, To Have & to hold to himself & his [heirs], at the will of the lord And they[sic] gave the lord as a fine for having entry 12d ... Henry the sixth ... thirty seven.

The following extract is Muniments 286 & 287 in Warner's Catalogue, not yet transcribed :

Surrender by Roger Underwode alias Tornour of 1½ acres of land in the Apse, near Langebourne, late Richard and Alienora Wodesere's, and 1 acre called Canell acre, late Richard Depeham's, and 1½ acres near the Waterynges in Puryfeld, late Simon Dokkyng's, to the use of Elizabeth, widow of William Knyght.
