

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original Roll. Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original Roll, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher. Text in green indicates letters missed out of the original text, usually in commonly found abbreviations. Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

[There follow about 30 lines of intermittently legible writing, perhaps intentionally erased, which relate to the manor of Walsingham (also owned by Bermondsey Abbey).]

[End of D1 [previously C12], which appears to lack a pair of holes for threading several rolls together, although there is one hole at the top on the other side, which might do.]
