

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original Roll.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original Roll, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Text in green indicates letters missed out of the original text, usually in commonly found abbreviations.

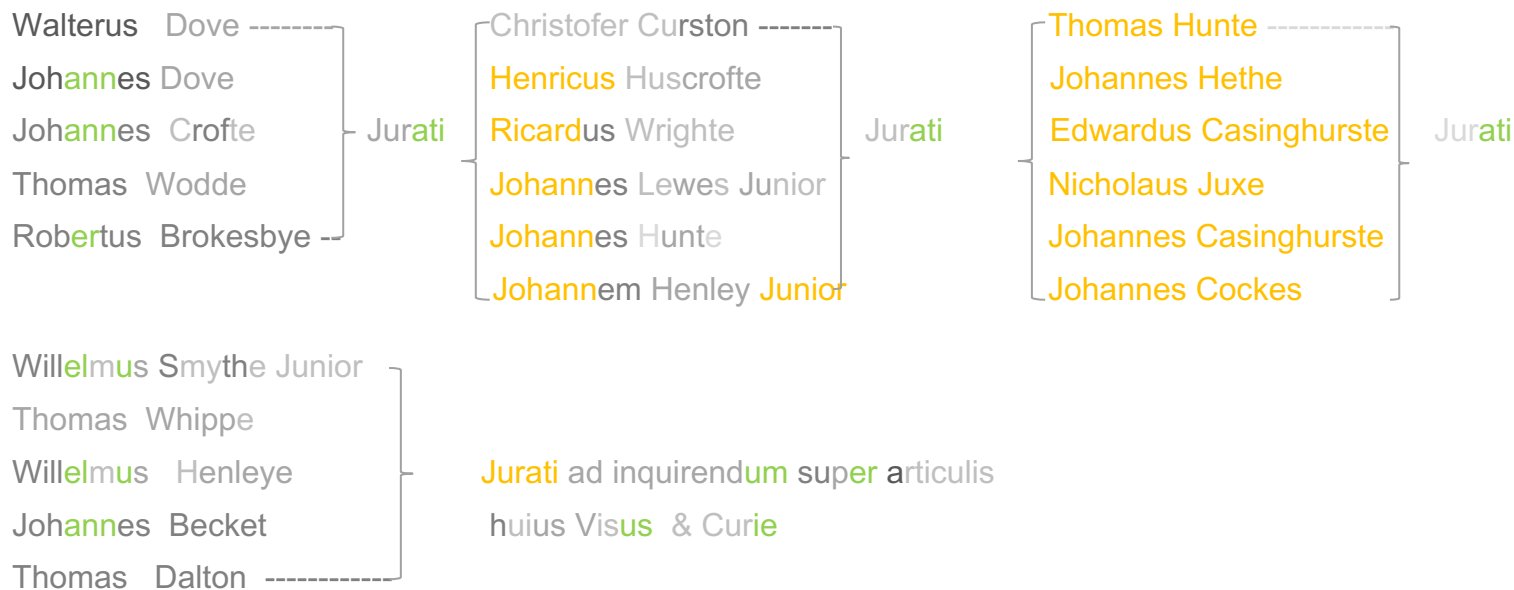

The available photographs of this Roll are unusually poor, and text which is not visible on them, but was visible to the transcriber (working from the original Roll) in 1982, is shown in yellow.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

[Too damaged to be intelligible. 'Pollices' probably means 'pollards' (rather than thumbs!)]

[The remainder of this side of the Roll is concerned with proceedings of the manors of 'Milton' and 'Goringe-cum-membris', slightly more legible than the above, but not reproduced here. Both are dated to 'Quinto' Eliz. I. (1563).]
