

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

In this case, the document is evidence of the existence of a lost Roll, rather than a Roll itself.

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original document.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original document, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

Roll

14 Nov 1590 [33 Eliz. I]

N.B. This Roll is not extant, but the transaction below is referred to in Muniment 387, dated 5 December 33 Eliz I [1590], and must have been included in a Roll of this earlier date.

Manor of Dulwyche ¶ As elsewhere appears, at the latest Court Baron of the aforesaid Manor held here on Saturday, namely the fourteenth day of November last past, is Contained thus :

Manor of Dulwyche ¶ To this Court came John Hunt, by his Attorney Roland Deakon, And complained against Ellis Parrye and John Lewys on a plea of land, namely of a free tenement of his, namely of one cottage & one garden, with appurtenances, in Dulwyche, within the parish of Camberwell, within the jurisdiction of this Court, held of the aforesaid lord of the Manor of Dulwyche aforesaid by Copy of the rolls of the Court of the aforesaid Manor, at the will of the lord, according to the Custom of that Manor, And pleads to prosecute his aforesaid claim in the presence of the aforesaid Steward of the aforesaid Manor in the same Court here against the aforesaid Ellis Parrye & John Lewys in the form & nature of the lady Queen's writ at common law of the assize of novel disseisin in accordance with the Custom of the aforesaid Manor, saying that the aforesaid Ellis & John Lewys wrongfully & without judgment disseised him of his aforesaid free tenement, namely of the aforesaid Cottage & garden, with appurtenances, in Dulwyche aforesaid, within the aforesaid parish of Camberwell aforesaid, within the jurisdiction of this Court &c, And in accordance with the Custom of that Manor he found pledges for prosecuting his aforesaid complaint in the aforesaid form & nature, in the presence of the aforesaid Steward in the same Court here, namely John Doo & Richard Roo, And he sought process for himself to make the above [pleading] against the aforesaid Ellis Parrye & John Lewys in accordance with the Custom of the aforesaid Manor. Therefore in accordance with the Custom of that Manor Salomon Serjante, bailiff of the aforesaid Manor and manager of this Court, is ordered that he should make that tenement to re-take of Chattels which were taken in the same [?], And the same tenement with Chattels to be in peace [i.e. not interfered with] until the next Court Baron of the aforesaid Manor here, namely being held at Dulwyche aforesaid in the Court house here on Saturday, namely the fifth day of December next to come, according to the Custom of the aforesaid Manor. And meanwhile to make 12 free & legal men, Customary tenants of the aforesaid Manor of the View of Dulwyche aforesaid to view that tenement with appurtenances, And their names to be numbered, And to summon them by good summoners, that he[sic, they] will be in the Presence of the aforesaid Steward at the aforesaid next Court Baron of the aforesaid Manor here, namely at Dulwyche aforesaid in the aforesaid Court house being held here on the Saturday namely the same fifth day of December above-stated, according to the Custom of the aforesaid Manor, ready to make recognisance therein &c., And to put by gages &c., And that he should then have here all his named pledges, And therein [he is] ordered &c., the same day is given to the aforesaid John Hunt here &c. ...

[The parties returned to Court on 5 December 1590 to complete the transaction.]
