

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1908.

In this case, the document is evidence of the existence of a lost Roll, rather than a Roll itself.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents, please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original document.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original document, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

Roll

22 Apr 1592 [34 Eliz. I]

N.B. This Roll is not extant, but the two transactions below comprise Muniments 392 and 393 respectively, and must have been included in a Roll of this date.

Dulwytch

¶ View of Frank pledge with Court Baron of Francis Calton Esquire, lord of the aforesaid Manor of Dulwytch aforesaid, there held on Saturday, namely the twenty-second day of April in the Thirty-fourth Year of the reign of our lady Elizabeth, by the grace of god Queen of England, France & Ireland, defender of the faith &c.

¶ It is established by the homage, and the same homage upon their oath present, that Mary Wright, one of the daughters & co-heirs of Richard Wryght deceased, who held of the lord of this Manor to herself & her heirs by Copy of the rolls of the aforesaid Manor Court, at the will of the lord, according to the custom of that Manor, and by the rent & services thereof hitherto owed & by law accustomed, a fourth part of one messuage or tenement & fifteen acres of arable land by estimation in Dulwytch aforesaid, being Customary and native land of the aforesaid Manor, lately Lane's Land and afterwards John Crofte's, which said messuage & fifteen acres of native land with appurtenances descended to the aforesaid Mary and to certain persons Katherine Wryght, Ellen Wryght & Agnes Wryght, as daughters & heirs of the aforesaid Richard Wryght by hereditary descent according to the custom of the aforesaid manor, since the last Court held here, namely on the fifth day of February in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of the present lady Queen, outside the Court of the Manor of Dulwytch aforesaid, in the presence of John Adye, gentleman, Steward of the aforesaid Manor, at Gray's Inn in the County of Middlesex, came & in accordance with the custom of the aforesaid Manor, then & there, outside the same Court of the same Manor, surrendered into the hands of Nicholas Foster & Ellis Parrye, two Customary tenants of the aforesaid Manor, in the presence of Christopher Cursons, Customary tenant of the aforesaid Manor witnessing this, all the aforesaid part or share of the same Mary, namely the aforesaid fourth part of the aforesaid messuage or tenement & fifteen acres of arable land, by estimation, in Dulwytch aforesaid, Excepting a certain Cottage lately parcel of the premises, now in the occupation of John Hudson, With the intention that the same Nicholas & Ellis, the aforesaid Customary tenants, would at the then next Court Baron of the aforesaid Manor, 'saltem' [= 'at least, or more likely 'scilicet' = namely] at this same Court, surrender into the hands of the lord the same fourth part of the aforesaid messuage [or tenement] & fifteen acres of land with appurtenances in the name

& place of the same Mary, according to the custom of the aforesaid manor, by the hands of Nicholas & Ellis themselves, to the use of Thomas Parrye, his heirs & assigns, in perpetuity Which said Nicholas Foster & Ellis Parrye now present here in Court, in the name & place of the same Mary, surrendered into the lord's hands, by the hands of Nicholas & Ellis themselves, the aforesaid fourth part of the aforesaid messuage & fifteen acres of arable land, with appurtenances, to the use of the aforesaid Thomas Parrye, his heirs & assigns, in perpetuity, according to the intent of the aforesaid surrender, To him, Thomas Parrye, now present here in Court in his own person, the lord, by his Steward, conceded seisin of the aforesaid fourth part of the aforesaid tenements[sic] with appurtenances, to hold to the same Thomas Parrye, his heirs & assigns, of the said lord of this Manor, by Copy of the rolls of the Court, at the will of the lord, according to the custom of the aforesaid Manor, by the rod, & by the rent & services thereof hitherto owed & by law accustomed. And he made fealty therefor to the lord, And he gave the lord as a fine therefor : 30s, And he was admitted tenant thereof by the rod &c

¶ It is established by the homage, and the same homage upon their oath present, that Thomas Warde & his wife Katherine, one of the daughters & co-heirs of Richard Wryght deceased, who in right of the same Katherine held of the lord of this Manor to themselves & the heirs of the same Katherine by Copy of the rolls of the aforesaid Manor Court, at the will of the lord, according to the custom of that Manor, and by the rent & services thereof [hitherto] owed & by law accustomed, a fourth part of one messuage or tenement & fifteen acres of arable land by estimation in Dulwytch aforesaid, being Customary and native land of the aforesaid Manor, lately Lane's Land and afterwards John Crofte's, which said messuage & fifteen acres of native land with appurtenances descended to the aforesaid Katherine and to certain persons Ellen Wryght, Agnes Wryght, & Mary Wryght, as daughters & heirs of the aforesaid Richard Wryght by hereditary descent according to the custom of the aforesaid manor, since the last Court held here, namely on the fifth day of February in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of the present lady Queen, outside the Court of the Manor of Dulwytch aforesaid, in the presence of John Adye, gentleman, Steward of the aforesaid Manor, at Gray's Inn in the County of Middlesex, came & in accordance with the custom of the aforesaid Manor, then & there, outside the same Court of the same Manor (the same Katherine being solely & privately examined thereon by the said Steward of the aforesaid Manor in accordance with the custom of that manor), surrendered into the hands of Nicholas Foster & Ellis Parrye, two Customary tenants of the aforesaid Manor, in the presence of Christopher Cursons, Customary tenant of the aforesaid Manor witnessing this, all the aforesaid part or share of the same Thomas & Katherine in right of the same Katherine, namely the aforesaid fourth part of the aforesaid messuage or tenement & fifteen acres of arable land, by estimation, in Dulwytche aforesaid, Excepting a certain Cottage lately parcel of the premises, now in the occupation of John Hudson, With the intention that the same Nicholas & Ellis, the aforesaid Customary tenants, would at the then next Court Baron of the aforesaid Manor, namely at this same Court, surrender into the hands of the lord the same fourth part of the aforesaid messuage or tenement & fifteen acres of land with appurtenances in the name & place of themselves the same Thomas & Katherine according to the custom of the aforesaid manor, by the hands of Nicholas & Ellis themselves, to the use of Thomas Parrye, his heirs & assigns, in perpetuity Which said Nicholas Foster & Ellis Parrye now present here in Court, in the name & place of them Thomas & Katherine, surrendered into the lord's hands, by the hands of Nicholas & Ellis themselves, the aforesaid fourth part of the aforesaid messuage & fifteen acres of arable land, with appurtenances, to the use of the aforesaid Thomas Parrye, his heirs & assigns, in perpetuity, according to the intent of the aforesaid surrender, To him, Thomas Parrye, now present here in Court in his own person, the lord, by his Steward, conceded seisin of the aforesaid fourth part of the aforesaid tenements[sic] with appurtenances, to hold to the same Thomas Parrye, his heirs & assigns, of the said lord of this Manor, by Copy of the rolls of the Court, at the will of the lord, according to the custom of the aforesaid Manor, by the rod, & by the rent & services thereof hitherto owed & by law accustomed. And he made fealty therefor to the lord, And he gave the lord as a fine therefor : 30s, And he was admitted tenant thereof by the rod &c