

The following document is part of a Dulwich Society project to digitise, transcribe and translate the Dulwich Manorial Court Rolls. They begin in 1333 and continue, with some breaks, to 1903.

In this case, the document is evidence of the existence of a lost Roll, rather than a Roll itself.

For more details of the original court rolls and other documents, please go to <https://www.dulwichsociety.com/courtrolls/>

Text in red, apart from modern notes by the transcriber, indicates text missing from, or entirely illegible in, the original document.

Text in various shades of grey indicates text which, in the original document, is to a greater or lesser extent difficult to decipher.

Text in green indicates letters missed out of the original text, usually in commonly found abbreviations.

Otherwise, all contemporaneous text is in black, except for presumed later additions which are indicated in brown or blue.

'Roll' N18 [previously XC2] [This is not a proper Roll, but was obviously intended as a rough draft of another (no longer extant) Roll. It comprises a single sheet, much damaged. The date and name at the top were written, much later, on the repaired portion.]

William Hix --- Constable

Edmond Terey
Richard Collens } headboroughs

[first mention]

Nathaniell Nellham --- Aleconner

[The names of the Officers in 1679 and 1680 are different from these, so the Roll of which this is a draft must have dated from 1681, 1683, or 1684 (when all those named here were still alive), not 1679.]
