Church of God 7th Day Sabbath Keeping exterior

Historical summary
Called the Epiphany Church Hall and also the Mission Church, it was built in 1908 by Nixon Horsfield & Sons for the Revd A. Eglington of St John's Goose Green. It was built for the Church of the Epiphany which began as a children's church in St John's School, North Cross Road. It was used as a church until 1927 and again from 1941-1951 until St John, Goose Green was rebuilt after the war. Later (as the Epiphany Hall) it was used as a parish hall until sold in 1994 to finance the Goose Green Centre. It was then used by the Iglesia de Dios Ministerial de Jesucristo Internacional (Church of God Ministerial of Jesus Christ International). Since c. April 2013 it has been used by the Church of God Seventh Day Sabbath Keeping Temple.
