Historical summary
The New Testament Church of God was founded in 1866 in the USA while the UK branch was established in 1953 by Revd Dr Oliver A. Leyseight in Wolverhampton. This building was acquired in 1975 and is the former St John's Guernsey Grove. It has also been used by the New Tidings Community Outreach Group and the African-Caribbean Mental Health Association. It contains a memorial plaque for 86 men from Holy Trinity and St John's who lost their lives in the 1914-18 war.
