Restoration City Church

Active
Pentecostal
Life Centre, First Floor, 55-63 Grove Vale (above Kwik Fit)

Restoration City exterior

Historical summary
The church was founded by Bishop James Nanjo, date unknown but before August 2017. In 2006 they took over this Grove Vale premises as their main site. In 2017 Bishop Nanjo hosted Apostle Paul Odola and Dr Philip Aryee at the church.

Pre-1905 this site was farmland, which later developed into the Grove Vale municipal housing estate. From the 1930s to 1987 it was the Grove Park Mission, the Plymouth Brethren Free Church and then the Christian Fellowship. From 1987–2005 Book Aid International leased the site. It was then used by the City of Faith Church followed by the Restoration City Church.

Source: Southwark Local Studies